

Victor's Poor Choices

Name: Hope Schroeder

Create a list of Victor Frankenstein's worst decisions. This brainstorming section is required.

- studies natural philosophy (ch. 3)
- He abandon's the monster (ch. 5+6)
- Destroyed the progress he had made on his monster's companions
- He let his newly-wed wife alone in the room despite the monster's threats

Which of these decisions was Victor's worst decision? Be sure to acknowledge the limitations/criticisms of your argument, and use all appropriate strategies to make your point. Write your response on a separate sheet of paper and staple this to it.

4 :)

Scored for Argument.

Argument: Students will be able to provide a rigorous, supported defense of their own claims.

Develops a rigorous, accurate, sophisticated and supported argument that strengthens a thesis, and addresses possible criticisms and limitations.

Develops a logical, supported argument that strengthens a thesis.

Argument is supportable; however, is mismatched, support is haphazard, and/or logic is inconsistent, or incomplete.

Thesis is unsupported—maybe unsupportable—unclear, inconsistent.